Command Management (Leadership at Company Level)

INTEREST

PERSONAL:

- Name:
- Home
- Civil Status:
- Source of Commission:
- Master's Degree:

ASSIGNMENTS:

-

MILITARY SCHOOLINGS:

-

What can you say about this picture? In two minutes write your opinion. If you agree or not and why…

NEED

Understanding company management is indeed crucial to Company Commander in the Army.

Effective management requires smooth operations, cohesion frameworks, and mission success, all of which are vital for the units effectiveness and the safety of its members.

4 hrs

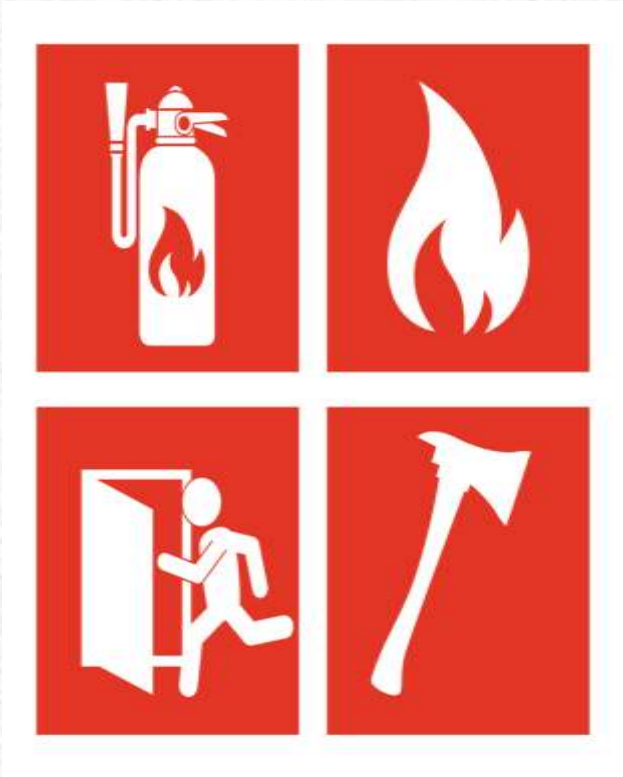

ROAD MAP

- Explain the duties of a Company Commander:
  - Company Commander.
  - Foremost Commandership.
  - Who you are as the Company Commander?
  - Challenges of an operational environment.
  - Roles and Responsibilities:
  - Company Commanders' experiences
- Apply: Check on Learning
- Summary:
- Assess: Written exam (Essay)

LEARNING OUTCOME

At the end of the session, the students will be able to relate Company Management (Leadership at the Company level) in a classroom setting IAW Company Commander’s Guide Handbook s2020.

Safety Plan

In case of fire, the nearest person on the fire extinguisher will extinguish and control the fire, then get out and proceed at Ground for consolidation and mustering.

Safety Plan

Trip Wire, observe electrical hazards in the area.

In case of injuries, learner to stay calm and instructor will call for med staff from station hospital if situation demands.

Be mindful of the safety signage around.

Safety Plan

In case of earthquake, DROP where you are, COVER and HOLD ON and follow the emergency evacuation plan then get out and proceed at Mabini hall Ground for consolidation and mustering.

Source of Army Standards

SAFETY PLAN

Excessive Heat Drinking cool liquids like water can help reduce body temperature by cooling the body internally. The regular intake of fluids can also prevent dehydration, which can increase body heat.

Be mindful of the safety signage around.

COVID 19

In this "New Normal" Condition

Source of Army Standards

CLASSROOM RULES

- Turn your cellphone into silent mode

- In case of emergency, just follow escape route as prescribed in the evacuation plan

- You can perform stretching exercise at the back if you feel sleepy

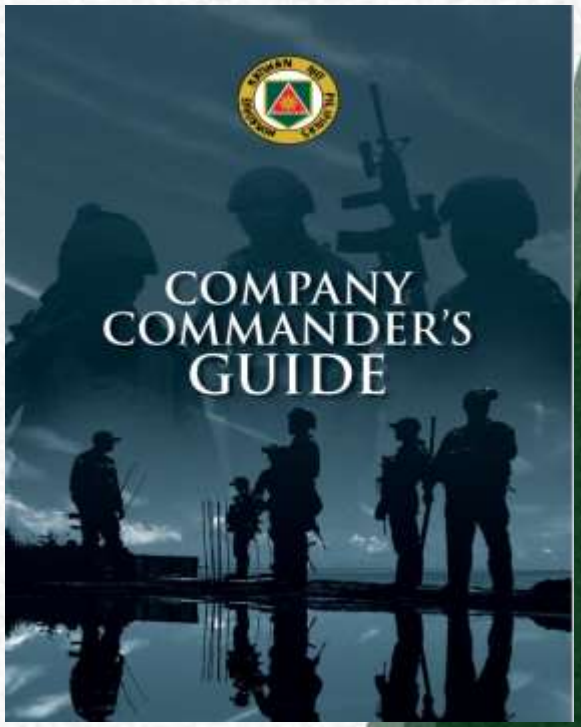

- If there is any question, just raise you right hand and wait to be acknowledged

- Students may use the back door for personal necessities

Reference

COMPANY COMMANDER'S GUIDE HANDBOOK
Published By:
Office Of The Assistant Chief Of Staff
For Education And Training, G8
Philippine Army
Copyright 2020

LEADERSHIP IN COMPANY LEVEL

Foremost Commandership

- Commandership will lead you to apply not only leadership, but also management and command and apply these to authority.
- Commander is a leader with duties and responsibilities to fulfil, honed your leadership essentials that should equip you for something bigger.
- Company commander to practice the art of command that comprises authority, decision making, and leadership.

Who you are as the Company Commander

-the highest-ranking officer in the company.

-most crucial and significant

-have the power and responsibility

Hmmm. Need to know more about who I am As a CO…

Characteristics of a CO

Because you are expected to be the unit standard, much is expected from you. Thus, you need to develop three foundations for your leadership position and that is:

- character
- presence
- intellect

Leadership is influence. Leadership is vision. Teaching, mentoring, and developing your Company is the highest calling of leadership.

A CO is a person of character

Embodies the Army core values
Empathic
Service-oriented
Disciplined
Humble

honor, duty and patriotism/ morals of troops/mentally prepared/ integrity, honesty, competence and confidence

A CO is a person of presence

Fit

Confident

Resilient

confidence, competence, and a positive example/ Avoid substance abuse/ Nobodies perfect?/ winning spirit

○ A CO is a person of intellect

Mentally agile.

Provides sound judgement

Innovative

Tactful

Expert

creatively and critically/ think flexibly/ timely manner and balance facts/ implement something new to make work better/ Calmness/ tactical and technical

Leadership Competencies of a Company Commander

A CO must lead

- Lead others
- Builds trust
- Extends influence
- Leads by example
- Extends influence
- Communicates

A CO must develop

- Develops leaders
- Prepares self
- Creates a positive environment
- Stewards the profession

A CO must achieve

Challenges of an operational environment

Evolving threats
Media
Joint conditions
Technology
Health of the command
Local Terrorist Groups (LTGs)/New People's Army
Daulah Islamiyah (DI)
Abu-Sayyaf Group (ASG)
Health of the command
Local Terrorist Groups (LTGs)/New People's Army
Daulah Islamiyah (DI)
Abu-Sayyaf Group (ASG)

Maute Group
Turaifie and Hassan Group
Maguid Group
Bangsamoro Islamic Freedom Fighters (BIFF
Foreign Terrorists (FTs)

Peace-Inclined Armed Groups (PIAG)
Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF)
Moro National Liberation Front (MNLF)

10 minutes break !!!!!

THE COMPANY COMMANDER'S ROLES AND RESPONSIBLITIES:

WHAT HE SHOULD AND WHAT SHOULD NOT BE

Bok/First, ano gagawin ko?

Bok sundin mo lng kung ano ang nasa puso mo.

Sir, do what is right for the soldier and for the Army Sir!

Judicial Responsibilities

In making decisions on matters pertaining to judicious punishment

Enforce the law

-Ensure that your troops understand the Codes of Conduct/Ethics

-You must base the standards of discipline for your unit on military laws and regulations.

Protect your soldier's rights

-Make sure that you do not inadvertently violate the rights of soldiers.

- you also are responsible for ensuring that his rights are protected.

Personnel and Administration Responsibilities

You have to ensure efficient processing of your soldiers' personnel actions, and to establish effective personnel management programs.

Insist on the completion of personnel actions.

Handle group personnel programs properly.

Read reports handed to you.

Ensure that every soldier is considered for an award

Training Responsibilities

Training to fight to win is your number one priority and that this will always be your most important responsibility.

You must:

- Develop a training philosophy
- Always consider your METL
- Essential Task List (METL)
- Decentralize training
- Advocate performance-oriented training-
- Eliminate or minimize training detractors
- Initiate sustainment training

Supply Responsibilities

As the company commander, you must properly maintain, secure, and account for your unit property on unit records.

You must:

- Handle key property accountability issues personally.
- Engage in money talks.
- Keep track of inventories.
- Handle supplies with care.
- Institute a No Pilferage Policy.
- Stay involved.
- Harmonize the members of your company.

Combat Responsibilities

Plan strategically. As the Company Commander, you are given the chance to come up with means to achieve the unit's mission and this can be done through thorough planning.

Showcase your acquired skill sets. Being technically and tactically proficient should be at your core as you are the focal point of the company.

Model leadership that encourages development. Setting the example or being a role model for leader development is essential.

Interpersonal Responsibilities

As a CO, you should place a high importance on day-to-day, two-way communication with your subordinates.

- Know your role as a counsellor, coach and Mentor.
- Get to know your subordinate leaders.
- Be a role model in conduct, appearance and finances.

10 minutes break !!!!!

DYNAMICS OF BEING A COMPANY COMMANDER

The moment you assume commandership, you are faced with countless things to keep in mind and along with these, a ton of things to do. Being the authority also means that you also need to function in the various areas of your command. This chapter presents your command responsibilities and specific areas that you need to take note of.

Keys to effectiveness as a Personnel Officer

Program activities of the unit that boost morale and welfare as well as discipline and confidence

Engage and talk with your subordinates

Recognize the efforts of your subordinates verbally and formally

Standardize correspondsence

Omit favoritism and granting favors

Normalize being “in the know” about current and significant events

Notify higher echelon only when their decisions are paramount

Ensure completeness of personnel files and records

Leaves, privileges, promotion, reenlistment and schooling are your responsibility.

Keys to effectiveness as an Intelligence Officer

I-ntelligence information is always available. Seek it.

N-ame an intelligence team when necessary.

T-hreats and potential threats should always be taken into consideration.

E-mploy and adhere to existing procedures in handling intelligence information.

L-earn to identify critical facts and assumptions.

L-imit information to those who will have the need and use for it.

I-nformation collection activities should be common knowledge among your troops.

G-enerate options given information

E-stablish appropriate relationships with possible information sources

N-otify higher echelons of significant and confirmed intelligence information

C-onsider elements of force protection as part of intelligence support

E-valuate information gathered

Keys to effectiveness as an Operations Officer

Obtain references and recommendations pertinent to the operations

Provide planning, preparation, and mission command of the execution of operations

Ensure the task is understood, supervised, and accomplished

Review requirements based on the plan

Analyze operational data and reports for compliance with directives and commander's intent

Take the initiative to accomplish the mission

Identify and address stress reactions

Observe adherence to Army core values

Nourish the warrior ethos

Supervise

Keys to effectiveness as Logistics Officer

Learn operating procedures especially those relevant to your logistics function

Organizational equipment merit assigned maintenance responsibilities

Guarantee the security of all property of the unit

Inventory activities is paramount.

Study the maintenance and supply system to ensure that you understand it.

Train equipment operators to maintain their equipment for garrison and field.

Implement a strong unit supply discipline program.

Conduct a physical inventory of unit property jointly with the former commander

Submit property and frequently monitor gain and loss documents to update

Keys to effectiveness as CMO Officer

CMO pillars work together to achieve the desired effect given different audiences and a dynamic information environment.

Measures of effectiveness should always be evaluated.

Obtain Commander's Guidance.

As a Training Officer

The best part of being the CO is the responsibility of keeping your people trained, equipped, and competent for any unit mission that could arise.

Area of Concern	Possible Responses
Combined arms and services teams	• Train as combined arms and services teams. Synchronize combat, combat service, and combat service support systems to complement and reinforce one another.
Performance standards	• Use performance-oriented training as soldiers learn best by doing and using a hands-on approach.

Other Functional Areas

As a Decision Maker

Every detail and occurrence that goes around in the company must always come to your attention.

10 minutes break !!!!!

THE COMPANY COMMANDER'S EXPERIENCE:

PRINCIPLES OF LEADERSHIP APPLIED

Lead from the Front As a leader

- means that you should demonstrate your leadership by going first.

Self-confidence not egoism

Self-confidence in leadership entails thinking positively about the future and your willingness to take the necessary risks to achieve your goals.

Moral courage is the courage to take action for moral reasons despite the risk of adverse consequences.

Physical Courage

Overcoming fear of physical is what physical courage is all about.

Foster teamwork

Fostering teamwork is important to make a cohesive unit that will move toward a common goal.

Be fit and energetic Physical fitness is mandatory for soldiers to prepare them in effectively handling tasks associated with combat.

Be aggressive and bold

An aggressive leader has dedication, energy and direction, but some of these aggressive behaviors can be socially and organizationally dysfunctional.

Care for your soldiers

Make the purpose of your leadership to serve, and to show compassion and goodwill to help others.

Be a student of the past The primary purpose of looking into past operations is not to prove that actions of past commanders

Be Decisive Decisiveness means valuing the most valuable resource - time.

Demonstrate sheer determination This means that you must continue to persevere towards a difficult goal in spite of obstacles

Be of strong character Having a strong character pretty much sums up all of these principles as this calls for you to be true to the core values of the Army

A Successful Company Commander Personified

Commanding a company comes down to the ability to lead and build a professional unit

Have Faith

Having faith does not only mean staying true to your religion

Increase knowledge

Being in a company in the army, we are bound to deal with all kinds of enemy threat groups in the country

Keep a Reliable C3 System

a reliable commander, commander's people, and commander's resources

Maintain positive Staff relationships it is said that NCO staffs exist to help the CO make and implement decisions

Develop a Time management system All COs must make use of their time in the company for their tenure as it could be ending sooner than they think.

Company command will be the peak experience for you as a junior army officer. It will give you the first true opportunity to take charge and implement a vision, and therefore you must remember to:

have Faith
Increase knowledge
keep a Reliable C3 system
maintain positive Staff relationships develop a Time management system

These are your FIRST as the first leader that will go into your successful commandership.

Any question?

Source of Army

CHECK ON LEARNING

Task: Group the students into five (5) groups. Each group will be given a statement/scenario

Scenario 1. The company commander, Captain Jones, has observed a troubling trend: soldiers in his company frequently arrive late to formations and company events. This issue culminated in only 15% attendance at a recent company awards ceremony, held on the anniversary of the unit's formation. Furthermore, most of the absent soldiers were reported to be intoxicated at the time of the ceremony.

Scenario 2. There are underlying tensions within the unit caused by factionalism between Bisaya and Ilocano soldiers, exacerbated by a "bata-bata" system (favoritism based on regional affiliations). This division has further undermined unit cohesion and discipline. Compounding these issues, some soldiers have turned AWOL (Absent Without Leave) due to financial problems, further decreasing unit effectiveness and morale.

Scenario 3. It has been observed that the announcements of physical fitness activity each morning include daily tasks for individual soldiers, other personnel are resisting and had many alibis. After the physical activity, the NCOs, headed by their First Sergeant (F/Sgt), have a meeting to rapidly figure out how they would allocate the daily tasks and compliances of the company.

Scenario 4. Despite these daily meetings, the Daily Operations Report (DOR) and Daily Intelligence Reports (DIR) have not been met within the given timeline, prompting the Battalion S3 to follow-up with the Company Commander. The outputs of the company compliances in admin and operations have been poor, indicating a significant problem in the administrative processes.

Scenario 5. In a remote Area of Operations (AO), sustainment operations are proving to be a significant challenge. The area is so far and isolated that supplies cannot be transported by vehicles, and instead must be carried by either humans or horses. This requires a large amount of labor and physical effort to ensure essential supplies reach the detachment.

Complicating matters, the supply route is of critical importance to insurgents who seek to disrupt operations. This poses a constant threat to the safety and security of the supply chain, requiring constant vigilance and security measures.

Furthermore, the detachment itself faces additional difficulties as there is no access to electricity or reliable signal for communication. This lack of infrastructure hampers coordination, decision-making, and overall operational effectiveness

Instructions:

1. Scenario Analysis: Analyze the provided statement/observation.

2. Identification: Identify issues.

3. Proposals: Develop a set of recommendations to address these issues

4. Presentation: Present your analysis, issues, and recommendations to resolve these issues to the class.

Summary

- Company Commander.
- Foremost Commandership.
- Who you are as the Company Commander?
- Challenges of an operational environment.
- Roles and Responsibilities:
- Company Commanders' experiences

Source of Army Standards

Assessment - Essay (No notes and gadgets allowed during exam)

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
CONTENT (40%) Ideas developed through examples, details, opinions, reasons and/or explanations Substance – presentation of facts, figures, and other details to highlight the idea being pointed out.
ORGANIZATION (30%) Order developed and sustained within and across paragraphs using transitional devices and including introduction and conclusion INTRODUCTION: States topic and present discussion points. BODY: Discusses the points presented CONCLUSION: Concluding statement clearly indicates position or answers to the questions.
CONVENTIONS (30%) Grammar, mechanics, spelling, word usage and sentence construction) Handwriting – readable, Spelling and Word Usage Grammar/Sentence Construction - coherence (tenses, singular/plural, etc)

Feedback	Congratulate the students for performing well.
Future	Our next session is all about Mission Command.

THANK YOU AND MABUHAY TAYONG LAHAT